Wayne County Juvenile Detention Center to Hold Fundraiser Proceeds to benefit children's services in Juvenile Detention Facility (JDF)

Detroit, MI - In a time when funds are scarce, every dollar counts! To help support services to children utilizing the Juvenile Detention Facility, Wayne County's Juvenile Detention Center will hold a book, bake and white elephant sale to benefit the Kids Fund.

The sale will take place October 19 through October 21, from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the Wayne County Juvenile Detention Facility located at 1326 St. Antoine in Detroit.

Each day of the sale will have a unique feature, including:

- October 19: Most books $0.50 to $1.00
- October 20: Half price day
- October 21: $1/bag day

“The Kids Fund is essential in helping us provide a range of programs and services, such as the Library, Recreation, and Health Services, that benefit the incarcerated youth at the JDF,” said Tadarial Sturdivant, Director of Children and Family Services. “We’re counting on the community to help sustain these services – giving even a few dollars helps.”

The Kids Fund provides the opportunity to purchase educational tools, with hygiene supplies, recreational supplies for those residents enrolled and achieving high levels of behavior modification.

For more information on the sale, please call 313-967-2132.
